

Evoke

Ergonomic Task Chair

Thoughtfully designed and manufactured in Australia, the Gregory Evoke represents the future of ergonomic seating, blending cutting-edge technology with a fresh, contemporary mesh back design. Customisable to suit your individual needs, the Evoke offers a small, medium, or large seat. This range ensures a perfect fit for every user, enhancing comfort and promoting proper posture.

Gregory Evoke

Australia's Superior Ergonomic Chair

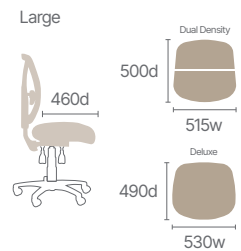

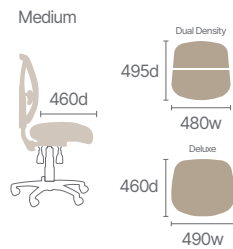

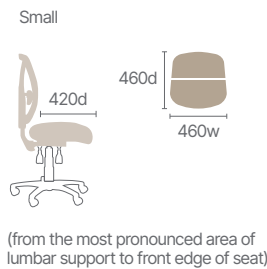

Elevate your workspace with the Gregory Evoke, the leading ergonomic office chair in Australia with an impressive mesh back design that ensures optimal breathability and adds a touch of style to any modern workspace. The adaptable ratchet back and cushioned lumbar support offer personalised comfort, promoting proper posture throughout your workday.

The Evoke incorporates Gregory's Dual Density Posture Support, reducing muscular effort and enhancing comfort. Its 3-lever independent mechanism allows for easy adjustments of seat height, seat tilt, and back angle. AFRDI 142 – Rated Load – 160kg MS Certification confirms Evoke's durability for intensive use with optimal performance.
